Two Top-of-the-Class Living History Museums

Enrich your trip to the past by experiencing both civilian and military 19th century life.

Upper Canada Village, near Morrisburg Ontario, boasts numerous costumed interpreters who bring to life the daily activities of a rural 1860s community, while a contingent of British soldiers showcase military life within the walls of a 19th century limestone fortress in Kingston, Ontario at Fort Henry National Historic Site of Canada - Part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

A minimum of 15 people per group to each site is required for the above two Combo offers. Booking must be made by one company/school for both attractions. Each attraction can be visited on separate dates in 2009, with full Combo payment due at the first attraction visited.

UCV/FH combo visits must be booked in advance by calling Fort Henry at (613) 542-7388
